

SUMMER 2002 ISSUE

Piano Ladies at TINO'S RESTAURANT

It was an evening of fine wine, fabulous food and fantastic music.

Hosted by TINO's Restaurant, the piano ladies came out to play and it was something to remember. It's not so unusual a thing to visit a Manhattan mid-town piano bar/restaurant to check the venue's musical showcase while dining, but it is highly unusual when all of them are female, one of them has blue hair, one is albino and all are playing alternative music. Not the normal laid back, staid lyrics or soft sounding backgrounds, these girls rocked the house.

Belting out lyrics that would make you shiver and shout, Brooke Fox, Lydia Lysinger and Dina Fanai's rambunctious melodies were funny, serious and everything in between that you could imagine. What a perfect accompaniment to the food fare that was being served to the restaurant patrons. The house specialties range from the Florentine Steak and the Grilled Tuna that absolutely melt in your mouth to the Ribollita (soup) and the Risotto Alla Chicco (with Shrimp) that are ever-so tempting.

"Designed with a certain nostalgia for Europe, from the fresh Mediterranean feel of the open French doors and wicker chairs and green marble tables, to the elegant dining area with soft yellow walls and antique furniture, TINO's Restaurant will transport you to a care free vacationing place."

TINO'S is located at 40 West 56th Street, NYC. 212-262-9300

PHOTO BY LLIORA TZUR